1. From the first day I saw her I knew she was the one

She stared in my eyes and smiled

That grew down the river, all bloody and wild

Elisa:

2. When he knocked on my door and entered the room My trembling subsided in his sure embrace He would be my first man, and with a careful hand He wiped the tears that ran down my face

3. On the second day I brought her a flower

She was more beautiful than any woman I'd seen
I said: "Do you know where the wild roses grow
So sweet and scarlet and free?"

Elisa:

4. On the second day he came with a single rose
Said: "Will you give me your loss and your sorrow?"
I nodded my head, as I lay on the bed

He said: "If I show you the roses will you follow?"

Elisa:

5. On the third day he took me to the river
He showed me the roses and we kissed
And the last thing I heard was a muttered word
As he stood smiling above me with a rock in his fist

He:

- 6. On the last day I took her where the wild roses grow She lay on the bank, the wind light as a thief And I kissed her goodbye, I said: "All beauty must die" And I lent down and planted a rose 'tween her teeth
